

DO JUMP!

“At some point in Do Jump!’s new show you’re likely to observe that you’ve become unmoored, floating giddily above yourself...so surprising and creative, it all seems new.”
~The Oregonian

“DO JUMP! packs more thrills into one hour than most performing arts groups deliver in an entire season.”
~The Portland Tribune

“[R]einforces a child’s sense of wonder and revives it in adults.”
~The New York Times

“Few theatrical experiences are as fun, as funny, or as liberally sprinkled with unexpected moments of beauty as Do Jump!”
~The Oregonian

Ahhh HA! is conceived and directed by Robin Lane and features the Do Jump! Company and special guests artists, including live music by Klezmocracy and Joan Szymko. Heart Stopping Aerial Artistry. High Flying Bungee. A Busking Tap Dancer. Black Light Illusion. Highly Acrobatic Hand Trucks. A Giant White Dog (yes, a giant white dog). Inverted Archery (you have to see this to believe it). Hilarious Nutcrackery...All this and more!

This visually stunning work of aerial dance, circus arts, illusion and live music, draws from a compilation of material from the past 33 1/3 years. Expect lots of twists and turns along the way with this ageless show, perfect for the whole family. After three decades, Do Jump! remains a pioneer in aerial dance, and has toured throughout North America, including performances on Broadway at the New Victory, at the Kennedy Center in Washington D.C., the Geffen Playhouse in Los Angeles.
